The Very Cool School

UCLA is located in California. It is a university in Westwood. UCLA has an awesome track and field. It has a huge campus. The mascot is a big brown bear wearing a blue t-shirt.

There are around 40,795 undergraduate students that go to school there. The school colors are white, blue, and gold. Students have mixed opinions about the school. Some think it's a good school and others don't like it that much.

For many Hoover students the highlight of the campus was the dining center that had Jumbo Juice, and Panda Express. There was also a cool bookstore. At UCLA people get treated with respect, fairness, and honor. The students at UCLA are cool kids.

Dreamworks' Home

Hoover Reporters watched Dreamworks' Home. It is about a thirteen-year old girl named Tip and an alien named Oh. They come from different worlds and must work together to find Tip's mother.

This movie is filled with funny moments. One moment, the best part of the movie, is when the audience finds out the true identity of the bad guy. Another really good part of the movie is when the captain gets overthrown by his followers.

This movie is also filled with sad parts. It's sad when Tip's mother gets kidnapped by the Boovs and taken away from Tip. The worst part of the movie is when Oh almost dies. It's sad because Oh is so many people's favorite character that no one wants to see him get hurt. This move would definitely get four out of five stars. Families should definitely go see this movie!

Returning Home

The movie Home was really good because it was filled with comedy, and it had a lot of good special effects and action.

There is a great action scene at the end of the movie that involves the guy in the suit.

Oh was a funny character. He was also a brave character by standing up to the man in the suit.

Because of his bravery, Oh got to be the new Captain of the Boovs and got to save the planet.

In the movie there is also a girl named Tip. Oh helps Tip on her search for her lost mother.

They run into trouble on their journey. This makes the movie exciting. Overall, the Hoover reporters enjoyed the movie.

by Alfredo S.

How Home is Related to Real-Life Situations

The movie Home was really entertaining. The movie tries to show how some people might be annoying, but they do care about other people.

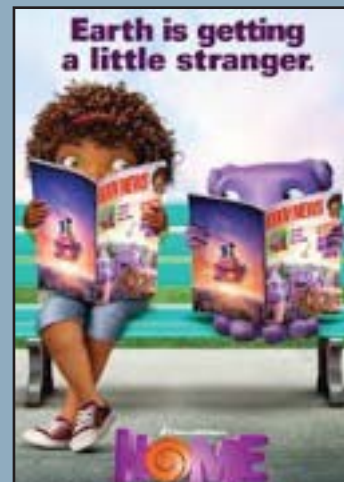

You might not even realize that the person who is getting on your nerves is someone you care about until it is too late

In the movie, Oh is a character that annoys the other characters. In the end, Oh ends up risking his life to save Tip.

This shows how people might be annoying at first, but in the end they can end up being a friend and even someone you care about as much as you care about your family.

PERFECT FOR AN AFTER SCHOOL SNACK!

Oh and Tip

Home is a good move because there was a moral that was easy to relate to, and because it was overall very funny.

Oh was the funniest Boov character. In the movie, Oh got bullied by his friends . Then he met a girl named Tip. Tip makes him help her find her mom. They go on many adventures together.

The moral of the story is about how family comes first. Another moral is the importance of keeping a promise. Families should go and see this movie.!

by Florentino R.

Home is Where the Heart is Home is a move where Boovs invade the Earth for a new home. They take away the mom from a little girl named Tip.

Throughout the movie Tip tries to find her mom. Tip gets help from her calico cat named Pig and a Boov named Oh.

This movie has a lot of action and adventure in it. The movie also has a great soundtrack. Younger kids and their families would like thi m ovie.

Going on a Journey

Hoover Times reporters had the chance to watch the movie called Home. The best part of the movie is when the main character Oh gets to become king of the Boovs.

It can get confusing sometimes for the audience to know if Oh is the good guy or the bad guy. There were so many funny parts in this movie.

Some reporters called Home the best movie they had ever seen. It deserves four out of five stars.

by Anthony M.

New Friendships

The movie was sad and fantastic at the same time. It was filled with funny jokes and cool technologies like bobbling cars and hovering cars. At the beginning, the alien, Oh, was excited to move to Earth.

When his species goes to Earth, they abduct humans and force them to live in Australia.

Oh meets a girl named Tip, who is trying to find her mom, a human that was abducted by the Boovs.

During the movie, there is a lot of action, adventures, and funny jokes. You should go see this movie!
