RHE Presentation

■ PressFriends was recognized by the Rolling Hills Estates City Council for the group's outstanding community service to the South Bay community. PressFriends is a community service group made up of middle school and high school students from Palos Verdes, who help higher need elementary schools and youth programs start and run their own newspapers. PressFriends also works with local PV elementary schools as well as running a free newswriting summer camp at the Palos Verdes Peninsula library. Mayor John Addleman and Mayor Pro Tem Steve Zuckerman presented individual President's Service Awards and the Governor First Lady's Service Awards and silver President's Service Awards to the assembled group.
